

K. Ephraim Cheapoo has been an enterprise level Information Technology engineer for approximately nine (9) years and counting. He has been delivering high profile technology platforms for small, medium and large entities in countries in west Africa.

He is experience with collaborating with technology giants and vendors to deliver enterprise level technology infrastructures to enhance the modern architecture of today workplace.

He credits institutions such as Intercom Production Manufacturing Company College of Technology (IPMC Ghana), Beacon I.T Ghana, Link Business College, Ramsys Infotech Solutions. Also benefiting from training from partners such as Microsoft, Huawei, IMF, TPS Pakistan etc.

Mr. Cheapoo has deliver solutions for governments, commercial Banks, Issuance Companies and their likes.

He has worked as an Enterprise I.T Engineer for IPMC Ghana in Ghana and Liberia respectively delivering high end enterprise solutions for multiple institutions and governments of these countries.

He has a strong technical background in delivering Financial technology (FINTECH) solutions.

Before joining WAIFEM Mr. Cheapoo worked as a keen technical resource for the payment system department of the central bank of Liberia.

echeapoo@waifem-cbp.org